Proceedings

1                   THE CLERK: This is the matter of United States
2 v. Malcolm Green, 06-cr-674.

3                   Counsel, please state your appearances for the 4 record.

5                   MS. NAUGHTON: Kathleen Naughton for the 6 government,

7                   Good morning, your Honor.

8                   THE COURT: Good morning.

9                   MR. MIEDEL: Florian Miedel, Federal Defenders.
10                  Good morning.

11                  THE COURT: Good morning. You may be seated.

12                  Good morning, Mr. Green.

13                  THE DEFENDANT: Good morning.

14                  THE COURT: I take it that you understand
15 English.

16                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

17                  THE COURT: All right. If at any point
18 something is said that you don't understand, please let 19 tell; okay?

20                  THE DEFENDANT: All right.

21                  THE COURT: All right.

22                  The first issue I want to deal with today is 23 your consent to have me hear your plea. You understand
24 that this is Judge Korman's case and he is the United 25 States district judge who will sentence you and who will

Proceedings

1 make the ultimate decision as to whether or not to accept
2 your plea of guilty.

3 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

4 THE COURT: If you wish, you have the absolute
5 right to have Judge Korman hear your plea and if you
6 choose to do that, there will be no prejudice to you.

7 On the other hand, if you wish, I will hear
8 your plea this morning and a transcript of these
9 proceedings will be made from the tape recording devices
10 here in the courtroom and that transcript will be given
11 to Judge Korman to review at the time of your sentence
12 and when he makes his decision as to whether or not to 13 accept your plea of guilty.

14 Do you wish to give up your right to have
15 Judge Korman hear your plea and proceed instead before me
16 this morning?

17 THE DEFENDANT: I'll give it up.

18 THE COURT: Okay. You want me to hear your
19 plea?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Do you make this decision
22 voluntarily and of your own free will?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

24 THE COURT: Has anyone made any threats or
25 promises to get you to agree to have me hear your plea?

Proceedings

1                   THE DEFENDANT: No.

2                   THE COURT: This is the consent form that I
3 believe you signed earlier. Could you just take a look
4 at it, Mr. Green, and tell me if you've seen it before.

5                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

6                   THE COURT: Okay. And is that your signature
7 there?

8                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.

9                   THE COURT: And I will note it's been signed by
10 counsel for the defendant, by the assistant United States
11 attorney and I am endorsing it, as well.

12                  Now, Mr. Green, before I can hear your plea,
13 there are a number of questions that I have to ask you to 14 insure that it is a valid plea. Again, if you don't 15 understand any of my questions, just tell me and I'll 16 rephrase them for you; okay?

17                  THE DEFENDANT: All right.

18 M A L C O L M G R E E N ,

19                  called as a witness, having been first duly sworn,
20                  was examined and testified as follows:

21                  THE COURT: You understand that having been 22 sworn, your answers to my questions will be subject to 23 the penalties of perjury or making a false statement if 24 you don't answer them truthfully.

25                  Do you understand that?

Proceedings

1           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

2           THE COURT: What is your full name?

3           THE DEFENDANT: Malcolm Green.

4           THE COURT: And how old are you?

5           THE DEFENDANT: 23 years old.

6           THE COURT: What education have you had?

7           THE DEFENDANT: High school education.

8           THE COURT: Did you graduate?

9           THE DEFENDANT: GED.

10          THE COURT: Okay.

11          Have you had any problems communicating with 12 Mr. Miedel, your attorney?

13          THE DEFENDANT: No.

14          THE COURT: Counsel, have you had any problems
15 communicating with your client?

16          MR. MIEDEL: No.

17          THE COURT: Mr. Green, are you presently or 18 have you recently been under the care of either a
19 physician or a psychiatrist?

20          THE DEFENDANT: No.

21          THE COURT: In the last 24 hours, have you
22 taken any narcotic drugs?

23          THE DEFENDANT: No.

24          THE COURT: Any medicine or pills of any kind
25 in the last 24 hours?

Proceedings

1           THE DEFENDANT: No.

2           THE COURT: Have you had any alcohol to drink
3 in the last 24 hours?

4           THE DEFENDANT: No.

5           THE COURT: Have you ever been hospitalized or
6 treated for a narcotics addiction?

7           THE DEFENDANT: No, I haven't.

8           THE COURT: Have you ever been treated for any
9 mental or emotional problems?

10          THE DEFENDANT: No.

11          THE COURT: As you sit here before me today, is 12 your mind clear?

13          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.

14          THE COURT: Do you understand what we're doing
15 here today?

16          THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17          THE COURT: Counsel, have you discussed the 18 matter of pleading guilty with your client?

19          MR. MIEDEL: Yes, I have.

20          THE COURT: Does he understand the rights that
21 he will be waiving by pleading guilty?

22          MR. MIEDEL: Yes.

23          THE COURT: In your view, is he capable of 24 understanding the nature of these proceedings?

25          MR. MIEDEL: Yes.

Proceedings

1           THE COURT: Do you have any doubt as to his
2 competence to plead at this time?

3           MR. MIEDEL: No.

4           THE COURT: Have you advised him of the maximum
5 sentence and the fine that can be imposed as a result of 6 his plea here?

7           MR. MIEDEL: Yes.

8           THE COURT: And have you discussed with him the 9 operation of the sentencing guidelines and the recent
10 supreme court decisions regarding the guidelines?

11          MR. MIEDEL: Yes, I have.

12          THE COURT: Mr. Green, do you feel that you've
13 had enough time to discuss your case with Mr. Miedel,
14 your attorney?

15          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

16          THE COURT: And are you satisfied to have him
17 represent you?

18          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am.

19          THE COURT: All right.

20          Have you received a copy of the indictment?

21          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

22          THE COURT: Have you discussed the charge in 23 the indictment with your attorney?

24          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

25          THE COURT: Now the indictment reads as

Proceedings

1 follows:

2                 "On or about September 6, 2006 within the
3 Eastern District of New York, the defendant, Malcolm
4 Green, having been previously convicted in a court of a
5 crime punishable by a term of imprisonment exceeding one
6 year, did knowingly and intentionally possess in and
7 effecting commerce, a firearm, specifically a Herman
8 Wyrock (phonetic) 38 caliber revolver and ammunition in 9 violation of United States law."

10                 Do you understand what you have been charged
11 with?

12                 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

13                 THE COURT: I want to make sure that you
14 understand the rights that you will be giving up if you
15 decide to plead guilty to this charge. The first and the 16 most important thing you must understand is that you do
17 not have to plead guilty even if you are guilty.

18                 Under our system of law, the prosecutor has the 19 burden of proving the guilt of a defendant beyond a
20 reasonable doubt. And if the prosecutor is unable to 21 meet her burden of proof, the jury has the duty to find
22 the defendant not guilty even if he is guilty.

23                 Do you understand that?

24                 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25                 THE COURT: So it happens in American

Proceedings

1 courtrooms and it has happened in this very courthouse,
2 that a jury has returned a verdict of not guilty even
3 though everyone in the courtroom knew that the defendant
4 was, in fact, guilty. What the jury was saying in those 5 cases was not that the defendant was innocent but rather
6 that the prosecutor had failed to meet his or her burden
7 of proving that the defendant was guilty.

8                  Do you understand that?

9                  THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

10                THE COURT: So that is why I say even if you
11 are guilty, you have a choice. You may plead guilty as 12 you apparently wish to do or you may say to the 13 government prove it, meet your burden of proving my guilt
14 beyond a reasonable doubt. And the way you exercise that 15 option is by saying not guilty when I ask you how do you
16 plead.

17                Do you understand that?

18                THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

19                THE COURT: All right.

20                THE COURT: If you were to persist in pleading
21 not guilty, under the Constitution and the laws of the 22 United States, you would be entitled to a speedy and 23 public trial by jury with the assistance of counsel on 24 the charge contained in the indictment.

25                Do you understand that?

Proceedings

1           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

2           THE COURT: At the trial, you would be presumed
3 innocent and the government would have to overcome that
4 presumption and prove you guilty by competent evidence
5 and beyond a reasonable doubt.

6           You would not have to prove that you were 7 innocent. If the government were to fail, the jury would
8 have the duty to find you not guilty.

9           Do you understand that?

10          THE DEFENDANT: I understand that.

11          THE COURT: In the course of a trial, the 12 witnesses for the government would have to come to court
13 and they would have to testify in your presence. Your 14 attorney would have the right to cross-examine those
15 witnesses for the government, to object to any evidence
16 offered by the government and to offer evidence on your 17 behalf.

18          Do you understand that?

19          THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

20          THE COURT: At the trial, while you would have 21 the right to testify if you chose to do so, you could not 22 be forced to testify. Under the Constitution of the 23 United States, a defendant in a criminal case cannot be 24 forced to take the witness stand and say anything that 25 could be used to show that he is guilty of the crime with

Proceedings

1 which he's been charged.

2           If you were to decide not to testify, the Court
3 would instruct the jury that they could not hold that
4 decision against you.

5           Do you understand that?

6           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

7           THE COURT: If you plead guilty on the other
8 hand, I'm going to have to ask you certain questions
9 about what it is that you did in order to satisfy myself
10 that you are, in fact, guilty of the charge to which you
11 seek to plead guilty. And you're going to have to answer
12 my questions and acknowledge your guilt.

13           Thus, you will be giving up that right that I
14 just described; that is, the right not to say anything
15 that could be used to show that you are guilty of the 16 crime with which you've been charged.

17           Do you understand that?

18           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

19           THE COURT: If you plead guilty and I recommend
20 to Judge Korman that he accepts your plea, you will be 21 giving up your constitutional right to a trial and all of 22 the other rights that I have just described. There will 23 be no further trial of any kind. Judge Korman will
24 simply enter a judgment of guilty based upon your guilty
25 plea.

Proceedings

1                   Do you understand that?

2                   THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

3                   THE COURT: Are you willing to give up your
4 right to a trial and the other rights that we have just 5 described?

6                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am.

7                   THE COURT: Now, I understand that the 8 defendant is not pleading to a plea agreement today; is 9 that the case?

10                  MR. MIEDEL: That's correct.

11                  THE COURT: Mr. Green, has anyone made any
12 promise to you that has caused you to plead guilty here
13 today?

14                  THE DEFENDANT: No.

15                  THE COURT: Has anyone made any promise to you
16 as to what your sentence will be?

17                  THE DEFENDANT: No.

18                  THE COURT: I want to briefly review with you
19 the sentencing scheme that applies here. The statute
20 that you have been accused of violating carries a minimum
21 term of imprisonment of zero years and a maximum of up to 22 possibly ten years in prison.

23                  Now as I mentioned earlier, there are in effect
24 what are called sentencing guidelines and those
25 guidelines determine where within that zero to ten year

Proceedings

1 range your sentence will fall.

2           Those guidelines will determine how high a
3 sentence could be imposed and how low a sentence can be
4 imposed. Now the guidelines are not mandatory but the 5 Court must consider the guidelines along with all other
6 relevant factors in determining what an appropriate
7 sentence for you should be.

8           Do you understand that?

9           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

10          THE COURT: The important thing that you must 11 understand is that until the time of sentencing when
12 Judge Korman is going to get what is called a presentence
13 report which will be prepared by the probation department
14 following your plea here and the court has an opportunity
15 to hear from you, to hear from your attorney, and to hear
16 from the government, until that time, no one can promise
17 you exactly what your sentence will be; not your 18 attorney, not the government's attorney, not me, not even 19 Judge Korman until then.

20          Do you understand that?

21          THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

22          THE COURT: Nevertheless, I am going to ask
23 counsel to put on the record what your respective
24 calculation of the guidelines are based on what we know
25 today. Let me hear from the government first.

Proceedings

1           MS. NAUGHTON: Yes, your Honor. The government
2 find that this offense would carry a base level of 18.
3 That's based on 20 points minus two for acceptance of 4 responsibility, therefore coming up with 18.

5           The government also has estimated that the 6 defendant has a criminal history category of two.
7 Therefore, the range of imprisonment would be 30 to 37
8 months.

9           THE COURT: All right. Mr. Miedel, do you have 10 a quarrel with the government's estimate that you would
11 like to put on the record or some different calculation?

12          MR. MIEDEL: Yes, your Honor. I believe that 13 actually the base offense level in this case is 14 with 14 two points off for acceptance of responsibility is a
15 level 12, therefore making the corresponding term of 16 incarceration 12 to 18 months.

17          THE COURT: Okay. And you are basing this on a
18 criminal history category of two, as well?

19          MR. MIEDEL: Three -- of two; yes.

20          THE COURT: Two, right?

21          MR. MIEDEL: Two.

22          THE COURT: Okay.

23          So, Mr. Green, you understand that the 24 government has come up with one estimate and your 25 attorney believes a different guideline range is

Proceedings

1 appropriate. At this point, no one can tell you what the
2 judge is going to do or what the probation department is
3 going to do.

4 Do you understand that?

5 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

6 THE COURT: In fact, the Court or the probation
7 department may come up with a different guideline range
8 than that of either the government or your attorney. If 9 that happens, you understand that you won't be allowed to 10 withdraw your guilty plea.

11 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 You also understand that as a result of your
14 plea, you face a potential term of supervised release.
15 Do you know what supervised release is?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Basically, you'll complete
18 any sentence of imprisonment that you're directed to 19 serve, you'll be released from jail but there may be 20 certain restrictions placed on your freedom, reporting to 21 a probation officer, for example, is one restriction that 22 is generally imposed.

23 Do you understand that?

24 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

25 THE COURT: All right.

Proceedings

1           In this case, as a result of your plea, you
2 face a maximum term of supervised release of three years.
3 If you violate any of the conditions of supervised
4 release, you can be sentenced up to two years in prison
5 without getting any credit for the time that you
6 previously served in prison and without getting any 7 credit for the time that you served successfully on 8 supervised release up until the date that you committed
9 the violation.

10           Do you understand that?

11           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

12           THE COURT: You also face a potential fine in 13 this case. The maximum fine that can be imposed is 14 $250,000.

15           Do you understand that?

16           THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

17           THE COURT: Yes?

18           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

19           THE COURT: And you must pay a $100 special
20 assessment.

21           Do you understand that, as well?

22           THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

23           THE COURT: And I take it that Mr. Green is a
24 citizen of the United States.

25           MR. MIEDEL: Yes.

Proceedings

1           THE COURT: Okay. All right.

2           Now, Mr. Green, you can appeal your conviction
3 if you believe that your guilty plea here was somehow
4 unlawful or involuntary or there was some other fundamental 5 defect in these proceedings that was not waived by your
6 plea.

7           You also have a statutory right to appeal your
8 sentence under certain circumstances if you believe that
9 your sentence is contrary to law. With few exceptions,
10 any notice of appeal must be filed within ten days of 11 judgment being entered in your case. And if you cannot 12 afford to pay for the cost of an appeal, you may apply
13 for leave to appeal in forma pauperis. What that means
14 is that the clerk of the court will prepare and file the 15 notice of appeal on your behalf.

16           Do you understand all of that?

17           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

18           THE COURT: Do you have any questions that you
19 would like to ask me about the charge or your rights or 20 anything else before we proceed?

21           THE DEFENDANT: No.

22           THE COURT: Are you ready to plead?

23           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am.

24           THE COURT: Counsel, do you know of any reason
25 why the defendant should not plead guilty?

Proceedings

1           MR. MIEDEL: No, your Honor.

2           THE COURT: Are you aware of any viable legal
3 defense to the charge?

4           MR. MIEDEL: No.

5           THE COURT: Malcolm Green, what is your plea to 6 Count Three of indictment 06-cr-674; guilty or not 7 guilty?

8           THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

9           THE COURT: Are you making this plea of guilty
10 voluntarily and of your own free will?

11          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am.

12          THE COURT: Has anyone threatened or forced you
13 to plead guilty?

14          THE DEFENDANT: No.

15          THE COURT: Has anyone made any promise to you
16 what your sentence will be?

17          THE DEFENDANT: No.

18          THE COURT: All right.

19          I read the charge to you a few minutes ago. I
20 want you to tell me in your own words what happened on or 21 about September 6, 2006 in connection with this firearm.
22 Tell me where you were and what you were doing.

23          THE DEFENDANT: Well I was on my way home. I
24 was stopped by officers. I was arrested for a firearm
25 and I had a prior felony conviction, so --

Proceedings

1           THE COURT: Okay. Did you have this 38 caliber
2 revolver and ammunition on your person at the time?

3           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did.

4           THE COURT: Okay. And did you know it was
5 there?

6           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did.

7           THE COURT: Okay. And your prior felony
8 conviction was punishable by a term of more than one year
9 in prison?

10          THE DEFENDANT: One year.

11          THE COURT: One year; okay. And where exactly
12 were you stopped by the police?

13          THE DEFENDANT: In front of my building, 259
14 Mother Gaston.

15          THE COURT: Is that in Brooklyn?

16          THE DEFENDANT: Brooklyn, New York.

17          THE COURT: And this was on or about September
18 6, 2006

19          THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20          THE COURT: Okay. And what would the 21 government's proof be with respect to interstate
22 commerce?

23          MS. NAUGHTON: Your Honor, this has been -- the 24 gun has been reviewed by an agent with ATF and determined
25 that it was not manufactured in the state of New York.

Proceedings

1 Therefore, it had to effect commerce to be in Brooklyn.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 Anything else?

4 MR. MIEDEL: No.

5 THE COURT: Based on the information given to
6 me, I find that the defendant is acting voluntarily,
7 fully understands his rights and the consequences of his
8 plea and that there is a factual basis for the plea. I
9 will recommend to Judge Korman that he accept your plea
10 of guilty to the charge in the indictment.

11 What happens now is you're going to meet with 12 the probation department to prepare the presentence
13 report that we talked about a little bit earlier. I urge 14 you to cooperate with them, obviously with your 15 attorney's advice.

16 Once that report is prepared, then a date will
17 be set by the probation department for sentencing. Okay?

18 Any application with respect to bail? I take
19 it that Mr. Green is out on bail. The same conditions
20 are remaining in effect until the time of sentencing.

21 MS. NAUGHTON: The government would not oppose
22 him remaining at liberty pending sentence. However, if 23 he wants to start getting credit for any time now, the 24 government would not oppose a permanent order of 25 detention.

Proceedings

1           THE COURT: Okay. Well --

2           MR. MIEDEL: I think he would decline that
3 opportunity.

4           THE COURT: Okay. All right.

5           MS. NAUGHTON: Well sometimes they want to get
6 a --

7           THE COURT: All right. Thank you, everybody.

8           MR. MIEDEL: Thank you.
